

Introducing the Team continued!

Lyn Weston Diocesan Missioner, Chester	Lyn started her role as Diocesan Missioner in June 2016. Previously, Lyn spent her career spanning 27 years leading major strategic change in several global organisations, predominantly in the Financial Services sector. In parallel to this, over the last fourteen years, Lyn has led a number of ministries in the Parish of Heswall, most specifically amongst Family &amp; Children's Mission and Ministry. She also had a wonderful experience leading a ministry in Liverpool Cathedral for a period of time amongst Persian Asylum Seekers. Lyn felt a calling to leave behind her corporate career whilst leading a Mission Team to Uganda in 2012, where she witnessed Total Community Transformation as the Church shone like an illuminated beacon amongst desperate social deprivation. Lyn is licensed as a Reader and is now in her final year of Ordination training with All Saints, due to be ordained Deacon in July, 2017. Lyn is married to Phil and has a son Luke, who is 9 and a 23 year-old stepson Adam. Lyn loves to spend time with her family enjoying outdoor adventure sports and is an eager marathon runner and fitness enthusiast.
Calum Piper Curate: St Hilary's Wallasey	Aged 25, Calum is passionate about building community centred upon relationships with Jesus. Key parts of his ministry in Wallasey involve working with young people and those in their 20-30's. He regularly goes into schools, does youth work and is chaplain of the local air cadet unit. His hobbies include walking, cycling and photography.

Introducing the Team

O God our Father,

we thank you for your great love shown to us in Jesus,

and that you have called us into the fellowship of your Church:

as we prepare for mission with our bishops,

open our eyes to your wonderful possibilities;

lead us to those whose hearts you are touching,

that we may bring them to Jesus

and learn together to follow him;

for you are our hope and our eternal salvation,

and in his name we pray.

Amen.

Rt Revd Keith Sinclair Bishop of Birkenhead	Bishop Keith was consecrated as Bishop of Birkenhead on 8th March 2007, having previously been Vicar of Holy Trinity in Coventry for five and a half years, and Vicar of Aston in Birmingham for thirteen years. His passions are evangelism, justice and renewal, having been involved in some regeneration in Birmingham, and the development of youth ministry there and in Coventry. He was curate in an inner-city parish in Birmingham, having been ordained in Birmingham Cathedral in 1984. During this time he was also Chaplain (part time) at the Children's Hospital in Birmingham. He worked as a solicitor in Birmingham before ordination, having been trained in London, where he was brought up. He is married to Rosie, who is a part-time lecturer in family law at Chester University, and has three children, Peter, Anna and David. He enjoys rugby, walking and watching films. He loves black gospel music and Bach, and loves serving in Chester Diocese and living on the Wirral.
Neil Baldwin	Neil Baldwin: Details taken from the book Marvellous co-written with his friend Malcolm Clarke. A circus clown, Stoke City kit man, active church member, friend to many well known people, ran his own football team, awarded the Freedom of Stoke-on-Trent and an honorary degree from Keele University for services to student welfare. He has been participating as a friend to students and staff at Keele for decades, and is described as 'more famous than the players' at Stoke City Football Club.
James Wilkinson Church Army	James Wilkinson is an evangelist, who loves football, food and art. He is a family man with a wife and three children. He loves sharing faith in natural surroundings, such as a pub. He has spent nearly seven years with the Church Army (three in Wolverhampton and nearly four in Chester Diocese). Prior to that, he has sixteen years' experience in the motor trade at Vauxhall, Ellesmere Port.
Ron Iveson, Vicar, St Oswald's, Bidston	Ron is the Vicar at St Oswald's and has been there for 10 years. Before vicaring he was a psychiatric nurse and ran a day centre for older people. He is married and has two boys who now run his life! He loves music, reading, people, walking on Bidston Hill, good jokes, nice food, clean beer, full-bodied wine, all kinds of films, zany humour and can generally be found singing Rat Pack songs for charity events, normally at the end of the evening when they want people to go home!
